

The Fairfax neighborhood is featured in GardenWalk 2021 on Saturday, July 10 ONLY, from 10 am-5 pm.

Fairfax has a rich cultural history as one of Cleveland’s historically black neighborhoods and is the origin community of Langston Hughes, Jesse Owens, Dorothy Dandridge, Bobby Womack and other notable sources of cultural inspiration. Fairfax is also home to Karamu House, the nation’s first inter-racial theater and arts center, as well as numerous historically black churches located in historic buildings. GardenWalk gives residents an opportunity to showcase their investments in urban sustainability, home renovations and community pride.

Welcome to GardenWalk Cleveland 2021!

We hope you will be as inspired as we are by the effort and creativity of the gardeners of 280+ private home gardens, community gardens and public green spaces in this year's nine Cleveland neighborhoods. As you tour today, plan to be wowed by Cleveland gardeners' ingenuity and DIY energy. You will meet gardeners from all skill levels and experience the beauty neighborhood gardens create. From quirky to traditional; minimalist to exceptional; historic to aspirational, gardeners are proud of what they have accomplished, and excited to share their work with you.

Enjoy!
