

Glenville

An historic neighborhood, Glenville offers stunning historic homes, buildings, and churches. Beautiful century homes line Rockefeller Park, home of the famed Cleveland Cultural Gardens, a unique collection of different gardens representing different countries and cultures. Glenville is the birthplace of Superman, an important stop on the Civil Rights Trail, home to a large selection of street art and green spaces, a harbor of great Cajun-comfort-food restaurants, and is a neighborhood in a season of revival.

★ 750 E 88th St – Information Station

Rockefeller Park Greenhouse

1 Cleveland Cultural Gardens

1201 Martin Luther King Jr Blvd
Over 30 sculpture gardens each created for different ethnic groups. Best parking on East Boulevard.

2 My Grow Connect Nursery & Learning Garden
793 East Blvd

Herbal Flower Garden & Nursery

3 9629 Thorn Ave

Our front yard boasts numerous perennials and a maple tree. Along the side of the house are annuals and perennials. The backyard boasts a vegetable Victory garden, flowers, berries, a hot tub and firepit and a variety of annual and perennials.

4 1081 Et 99th St

Seasonal array of flowers

5 9907 Ostend Ave

Front - Private Garden

6 9909 Ostend Ave

A ray of sunshine.

7 9915 Ostend Ave

A variety of perennials and annuals in bloom. Its my own private botanical garden blooming and bringing new flowers spring, summer and fall.

8 10015 Ostend Ave

Front yard full of flowers

9 10017 Ostend Ave

Front yard with colors of the rainbow

10 1136 E 98th St

Quiet yet dynamic perennials with annual highlights.

11 9811 Westchester Ave

Front flower bed and potted plants

12 1167 98th St

Flower, vegetables, butterfly, and hummingbird Garden

13 1177 E 98th St

Lush green garden with several perennials surrounding our slate patio

14 1366 E 114th St

Garden of Hope

15 1358 East 114th St

Love

16 10516 Englewood Ave

A Special Garden for Ella

17 10706 Englewood Ave

A place of peace

18 667 Lakeview Rd

Shana's Garden

19 12413 Woodside Ave

Butterfly

20 14744 Wemple Rd

New Gardener - Just getting it done