

BROADWAY SLAVIC VILLAGE

Sunday, July 9, 2023, 10 am to 5 pm

Broadway Slavic Village is a neighborhood that defies expectations. We showcase the manufacturing might of Cleveland amidst tree-lined residential streets and reclaimed natural spaces. Here, you're a short bike ride to Downtown, University Circle, Lake Erie, and a National Park. Our "village" offers an outstanding quality of life that is accessible to anyone. And, this diverse community is filled with residents, businesses and other friends devoted to improving each other's lives. Come and join us.

★ Information Station –Polish American Cultural Center, JPll Heritage Garden
E 65th St & Hosmer Ave

The beautiful Polish American Cultural Center, JPll Heritage Garden is located behind our center and museum. It is an outdoor garden that is fenced-in and has a circular brick walkway. 27 educational placards provide a century by century tour of the 1000 years of Poland's history.

1 6701 Lansing Ave

Greek revival former funeral home built in 1879. Surrounded on all sides with borders of flowering perennials & annuals, and shaded seating area in the back. Garden is a work in progress that has evolved over 19 years.

2 Gold Plum LLC – 6506 Gertrude Ave

Frustrated flower grower with no ground to grow in discovers container gardening with annuals. Expanded for 2023! Also, home of the Garden Factory FREE PLANT STAND! Bring a plant to share or swap. Available May-Nov.

3 Gertrude Gardens

NW corner of E 65th St & Gertrude Ave
Designed as a model of how a formerly vacant lot can be repurposed to serve the community. Site features flagstone paths, fruit trees, perennial flower gardens and art by local artists. New for 2023! "Serenade" a sculpture by Fred Gearhart. Concept and design by Anne Sherridon of Gold Plum LLC

4 The Garden of Life – 5701 Fullerton Ave

Flower garden dedicated to the Opioid Crisis.

5 Andreoli Restoration Sculptural Garden
5405 Fleet Ave

Sculptural Garden features metal work fabrication by Andreoli Restoration. This semi-public yard will be an ongoing evolution of trees, herbs, and flower plantings.

6 Green Infrastructure - NEORS
Fleet Ave & E 53rd St

Intensive green infrastructure project by Sewer District

manages storm run-off from several blocks of Fleet Ave.

7 3754 Crete Rd (aka Washington Park Blvd)

A near half acre lot bordering Washington Park in the first phase of a multi-year build. Currently contains a native pollinator garden, a large perennial island, and modest frontage garden. As a professional and hobbyist landscaper/gardener, I constantly adding new features!

8 4700 Pallister Dr

I am in my third year working to establish a home for pollinator birds, bees, and butterflies. I have dedicated my entire backyard in the effort. Every year gets a little better. I hope to have a nice space to display in this, my first year participating in the garden walk. Nick

9 4500 Pallister Dr

Our garden consists of 7 illustrious flower beds of perennials. Gaze your eyes on various types of anemones, poppies, and violas, not to mention various hydrangeas and rhododendrons. Both at front and back of our home. Our bed of Knock Out rose bushes will knock your socks off easily. Come take a peek.

10 3529 E 46th St

A little bit of everything. Vibrant colors and things that make you feel good. Also some herbs and hopefully a little garden in raised beds.

11 Arch Park public art & rain garden
E 49th and Broadway Ave

Placemaking Public Art piece is combined with Sewer District Green Infrastructure installation to create northern gateway for Broadway Slavic Village

12 4929 McBride Ave

Small front yard, filled with as many plants that would fit, for the most color

13 4922 McBride Ave

Small front yard, jam pack with many variety of flowers

14 Barkwill Buzz – Dolloff Rd & Barkwill Ave, nw corner

Beehive in its third year, with vegetables and flowers added to this handkerchief-sized community garden that had been untended for many years.

15 3270 E 55th St – STAR GARDENER

Historic home in Broadway Historic District. Roses, Hydrangeas, Peony's and Rhododendron. Perennial plants, with vintage brick patio. Architectural salvage pieces scattered throughout, and bottle tree.

16 6113 Francis Ave

Fruit and vegetables at this educational site

- 17 Morganic Gardens – E 65th St and Kenyon Ave
One of the oldest Summer Sprout community gardens in the city, with 40+ gardeners, recent investments include new fence and topsoil.
- 18 Union Ave Green Infrastructure – NEORS 6950 Union Ave
Intensive green infrastructure project by Sewer District manages storm run-off from several blocks of Union. Includes Public Art, adjacent to bike trail
- 6815 Chambers Ave
A (mostly) native front garden to encourage local wildlife while adding color and beauty to the street. In July expect to see blooms from Cone Flower (Echinacea), Lance Leaf Coreopsis, yellow and magenta Yarrow (Achillea), and Summersweet (Clethra alnifolia) and others.
- 19 Union Market Garden— 7308 Union Ave
Market Garden established 2020 for intensive vegetable production. Operated by Vegetative Works, LLC. Street parking is available on E 74th St.
- 20 3719 E 69th St
My garden is a container garden of different shapes and sizes. Roses, lilies, elephant ears, coral bells and more.
- 21 6814 Sebert Ave
My garden is built with love for all to enjoy. I nurture it daily to be a beam of light to someone who may need it. My garden radiates my motto "We're stronger together"
- 22 6900 Fullerton Ave
My place of Serenity- Every year i'm learning more to appreciate nature and how to plant grow flowers and vegetables
- 23 7413 Canton Ave
Collection of upcycled, recycled, and repurposed features create a lovely vegetable and flower garden retreat. Upcycled art and dining gazebo built from an old trampoline frame. Building a greenhouse out of old salvaged windows and doors.
- 24 7702 Canton Ave
XhibitX Garden – A 10x12 greenhouse
- 25 CAP ACADEMY @ AB Hart Elementary Garden 3900 E 75th St
Butterfly garden and fruit and vegetables. Use as an educational tool and learning space for students.
- 26 7116 Indiana Ave
Early stages of reimagining side yard expansion to complement restoration of 130-year-old family home. Maturing trees create two distinct microclimates: sun-drenched front yard for showy perennials and Metropark-like rear yard for lawn and shrubs. Goal is easy-maintenance oasis in heart of the city.
- 27 6931 Indiana Ave
High yield intensive vegetable garden. front garden and flower border, with re-purposed elements
- 28 6927 Indiana Ave
Over 33 years garden has evolved from intensive square foot vegetables to current flowers, including flowering trees, shrubs, and fruit. Gardener is now figuring out how to manage very mature shrubs and trees, while being blessed with creating color combinations – pinks and blues; yellows, reds, oranges...
- 29 6923 Indiana Ave
Small front garden takes advantage of sunlit patch for color and perennial flowers for cutting.
- 30 6813 Ottawa Rd
"I love a variety of flowers and colors." Senior citizen uses yard decorations, color accents to complement easy care shade tolerant perennials in pocket-sized front yard
- 31 6837 & 6841 Ottawa Rd
Adjoining large deep back yards with lush vegetation and a number of black berries bushes, newly planted birch trees, and a few beehives scattered throughout the property. Also, beautiful vegetable garden with variety of herbs and favorite fruit bushes and new raised bed garden.
- 32 6902 Ottawa Rd
No-mow front yard alternative for a sunny yard. Plantings done to encourage wildlife.
- 33 6924 Ottawa Rd
Flowers, fruit and fish! This comfortable yard has a mixed-use garden and a small urban fish pond. Hand-made and craft fair art offer accents.
- 34 Newburg green space
Broadway Ave & Harvard Ave intersection
Large perennial flower garden, a reclaimed steel tank, large stone blocks reclaimed from the Fulton Bridge, many trees, double swings and a bike path.